presented by Beth Foraker

Beth Foraker is a mom to four children: Jack, 26, Mary Kate, 23, Patrick, 19 and Caroline, 12. Her third child, Patrick, has Down Syndrome.

Beth is a former classroom teacher who currently works for University of California, Davis in the School of Education with beginning teachers in their Multiple Subject Credential/Masters Program. She is the Founder and Director of The National Catholic Board on Full Inclusion - a non-profit that works with families and schools to fully include students with intellectual disabilities in Catholic schools. Her big dream is to build Continuums of Inclusion: communities that offer preschool through college inclusion so that full, independent adulthood is possible beginning with every Catholic elementary school, every Catholic high school and every Catholic college and university offering an inclusive program for these students.
