

Dr. Christie Bonfiglio, Ph.D.

Director, Program for Inclusive Education; Director, Office of Professional Standards;
Faculty, Program for Inclusive Education & ACE Teaching Fellows

Dr. Christie Bonfiglio, PhD. specializes in academic and behavioral interventions within a multi-tiered system of support. She is well-versed in collaboration, child study teams, state processes, and has successfully facilitated the implementation of Positive Behavior Intervention Supports. Her research interests and publications are concentrated in these areas with a recent focus on inclusion in Catholic schools. Dr. Bonfiglio began her career as a school psychologist serving diverse students and programming, from gifted to struggling learners to those eligible for special education. She has directed inclusive efforts at Goshen College and at the University of Notre Dame and received tenure and promotion for this work. Dr. Bonfiglio is currently directing inclusive efforts and serving on state and national committees and boards.